

Missions Education For Preschoolers

What is Missions?

Missions is the Biblically charged task of sharing with others that God loves them.

What do children learn through Missions Education?

Children learn to appreciate the diversity and similarities of people throughout the world and understand that Jesus loves all people. Children learn about missionaries and their missions work around the world. Children learn about the greatness of God's love and how they are also helpers of God's plan in telling people about Jesus.

Why is missions education important for Preschoolers?

- Children learn how God is working in the world today as they hear missionary stories.
- Children learn to love God and to love others.
- Children learn about the Bible and the Biblical basis of missions in an active, age-appropriate learning environment.
- Children learn to exhibit compassion and kindness as they serve others through missions projects.
- Children experience cultures through sensory and interest areas which also enhances language, cognitive skills, creativity, imagination, and curiosity.
- Children experience praying for missionaries.
- Children develop mentally, physically, spiritually and socially as they learn, pray, and play in a missions focused environment.
- Children develop a strong foundation for a Christian and missions lifestyle.
